Dear Ms. Miyata:

I am responding to your letter of June 26, 1980 to Sandra Zyrkowski. I regret the delay in responding, however, your letter was only opened on Ms. Zyrkowski's return to this office recently.

As you may be aware, Mr. Paviolo was released from jail on "Supervised Liberty" July 9th of this year. We presently understand from the Italian Embassy here that he is residing in Cordoba.

"Supervised Liberty" is an alternative to the option program. Thus so long as he continues in this status he is not eligible to travel to Italy as an optionee.

Sincerely,

Townsend B. Friedman
First Secretary
